

Help Wanted

By Betty Purkey

TIAA is a volunteer organization. We rely on the willingness of our members to help bring to life all the education programs, special events, travel opportunities, community volunteer activities and communications that make TIAA a successful organization.

Right now TIAA is in need of volunteers to assist in a number of areas. Honestly, if we can't find volunteers willing to help out, some of these activities simply will not happen. So if you have participated in and enjoyed programs and events in any of these areas where we need help, please consider stepping forward and offering your support.

Our first priority is identifying someone to lead the Education Committee. Do you enjoy attending the TIAA education seminars? The Education Committee has been working without a team leader for quite some time. If you don't think you would have the time to be the leader of this group, would you consider partnering with someone else as co-chairs? This committee comes up with the ideas for the education events, identifies speakers and handles the facility scheduling and logistics. Contact Max Post for more information at mpost7@tx.ti.com.

In the Communications area, a team has been working on a website redesign for a while now. If you would like to help with this process or would be willing to help update and maintain the website with current content once it is up and running, please contact Ronnie Brandenburg at jbrb66@sbcglobal.com.

The TIAA calendar is an ongoing feature of both the website and the quarterly TIAA newsletter. A volunteer to keep these calendars updated and synchronized would be greatly appreciated. The newsletter and website also have a list of various alumni and retiree groups around the country along with a contact for each group. Keeping this up to date at least on a quarterly basis for the newsletter is another area in need of a volunteer. Contact Jon Campbell for further information on either of these opportunities at jonscampbell@gmail.com.

All of the TIAA committees (Education, Activities, Communication, and Membership) always welcome new members who would like to contribute time and ideas to make the organization a success. Contact TIAA President Betty Purkey at betty.purkey@gmail.com or any of the committee chairs at admin@tialumni.org if you would like to help!

Shop at Amazon via TIAA Website

When you shop at Amazon.com via the TI Alumni website, you help your TI Alumni Association earn an associate's fee, which, along with member dues, helps cover TIAA expenses.

The Amazon.com Associates program, launched in 1996, is one of the most respected marketing affiliate programs. How does it work? The affiliate (TIAA) offers Amazon's products for sale on the TIAA website using specially formatted links that allow Amazon to track sales. When a visitor follows the links and purchases a qualifying item, such as a book, TIAA earns a percentage commission. There is no added cost for the purchase.

The next time you plan to shop online at Amazon.com, click the amazon.com link on the TIAA homepage www.tialumni.org and share your shopping spree benefits with TIAA.

TI Retiree Luncheon to Honor Veterans

Join your TI friends and colleagues at the annual TI Retiree Luncheon on Veterans Day, Thursday, Nov. 11, at the Mesquite Convention Center. The doors open at 10 a.m.

The event will feature a barbecue dinner, served banquet style; comments by TIAA President Betty Purkey; and an update on progress on the TI Fab in Richardson by Tom Weichel, RFAB manager

The theme this year is Honoring Our Veterans. Retirees who are veterans are encouraged to wear caps with insignia of their service units, if available. In addition to our veterans, we will also honor representatives of active military units and the USO. Patriotic music will accompany the ceremonies.

Making Reservations

Admission cost is $15 per person if paid in advance or $25 if paid at the door. Make checks payable to TIAA and mail to P.O. Box 740181, Dallas, TX 75374. Each retiree may invite one guest to the event at the same price.

Nametags will be issued at the event entrance, with separate registration tables for prepaid attendees and those paying at the door.

The invitation packet was mailed in mid-October. It included a map and a reservation form for the dinner, optional vegetarian plate, bus transportation, physically challenged parking, and flu and pneumonia immunizations.

Any TI retiree or TIAA member who did not receive the invitation packet may get the information by calling the TIAA office, 214-567-8444.

Driving Instructions

The Mesquite Convention Center is located at 1700 Rodeo Dr., Mesquite, TX 75149, between the Hampton Inn and Resistol Arena, and is accessible from LBJ Freeway (I-635).

From southbound LBJ Freeway, exit at Military Parkway/Scyene Rd. (Exit 4). Stay on the service road and go through two traffic lights. Veer right onto Rodeo Center Blvd. Turn right on Rodeo Drive and left into the parking lot.

From northbound LBJ Freeway, take the Military Parkway/Scyene Rd. exit. Go left under I-635 and turn left onto the southbound service road. Turn right on Rodeo Drive and left into the parking lot.

Regular and handicapped parking will be available for those who prefer to drive.

Bus Transportation

Retirees who don't want to drive to the event can make reservations to ride shuttle buses departing from Texins Activity Centers: Sherman at 8:30 a.m.; Spring Creek at 9:15 a.m.; and the Dallas Expressway Site at 9:30 a.m. The $7.50 bus fee is payable when boarding the bus. Buses will leave the convention center at 2:30 p.m. or when all riders are aboard.

Flu & Pneumonia Shots

Seasonal flu immunization will be offered at $23. Medicare Part B and TI Blue Cross Blue Shield PPO insurance cover the cost of this immunization. Pneumonia immunization is available at $50 and is covered by Medicare Part B, once every five years.

Note: You must bring your Medicare card for the above shots if covered by Medicare Part B or your TI BCBS PPO card if not on Medicare. Those covered by insurers other than TI BCBS PPO or Medicare will need to pay by cash or check for the shot and file for reimbursement from their insurer.

Other Medical Tests

Enclosed with the invitation was a flyer listing medical screening tests to be offered by Health Screens and their cost. Call 877-854-4735 toll free to make appointments for tests. Fees for these medical service are payable by cash or check to the vendor at the event.

Socks for Orphans

Also mailed with the invitation was a TIAA request for luncheon goes to donate socks to Shoes for Orphan Souls, a ministry of Buckner International. As a community service, TIAA is collecting new socks – any size – which will be sent worldwide to orphans in 69 countries.

Please bring new unopened packages of socks to the Shoes for Orphan Souls container at the retiree luncheon.

Luncheon attendees will get an update on the TI RFAB facility.

TIAA Hosts On My Own Time Art Exhibit

TIAA coordinated the On My Own Time (OMOT) Art Exhibit this year for the first time. And, for the first time in many years, the art was exhibited at the Dallas Texins Activity Center on the Expressway Site. The exhibit took place from Aug. 1 through 13. A total of 70 TI employee and retirees submitted 95 pieces of art.

A panel of outside judges determined the category winners while TI employees and retirees voted to select the People's Choice Award either at the exhibit or online. The first-place, People's Choice Award and Best of Show pieces appeared in a citywide exhibition at NorthPark Center Sept. 19 through Oct 2.

"Like the Back of My Own Hand," an enhanced photo by Dennis Fritsche, won the Best of Show award. The People's Choice award went to Chaitanya Muralidhara for her "June Foliage Shawl."

Winners in the amateur category

TIAA Charity Golf Tournament Raises $20,450

By Max Post

“The 11th Annual TIAA Charity Golf Tournament Sept. 14 raised $20,450 in donations and pledges for The Senior Source, a non-profit organization that works to improve the quality of life for senior citizens in our community. The individual contributions by retirees were a big factor in this year’s tournament.

Despite heavy rains a week before the tournament, the Woodbridge Golf Club course was in good shape and a gentle breeze helped blunt the heat for an exciting day of golf.

Bob Law, a director and finance committee chair for The Senior Source, thanked golfers for their contributions and gave a brief review of the programs benefitting seniors.

TIAA President Betty Purkey presented a check representing the proceeds to Bob Law and Stephanie Grossman, special events director for The Senior Source.

Since 2001, the TIAA has raised more than $240,000 to benefit The Senior Source. Stephanie and her associates have commented many times on the importance of the TIAA to their organization and continue to express their appreciation for the support.

Golf Pro Holds Clinic

The support of Barbara Blanchar, a PGA teaching pro from St. Louis, was also recognized. Barbara, the sister of ex-TIer Joan Nichols, volunteered her time to conduct a clinic for golfers and take long shots on a difficult hole in exchange for donations to The Senior Source. With the assistance of Margaret Eckert, daughter of Courtney and Dee Miller, an additional $440 was raised.

Barbara’s efforts along with an extra contribution by golfer John Gibson made it possible for us to get well over the $20,000 level.

Contributors Recognized

The contributions from 11 Corporate Sponsors were recognized along with the gifts from more than 60 retirees who mailed in donations as hole sponsors, cart sponsors, or individual donors. Courtney Miller thanked all the volunteers who helped with the logistics to make the tournament a success, especially Jessica Stewart, TIAA administrator, and Stephanie Grossman of The Senior Source.

Home Health; Sachse Rod Shop; and SVtronics, Inc., Chris Dickey.

Courtney also recognized the tournament underwriters – Texans Credit Union and Texas Instruments. Their contributions cover the tournament cost, so that 100 percent of donations go directly to The Senior Source.

Tournament Results

Courtney announced results of the competition: 1st place team, Kevin Koestner, David Koestner, Mike Hayden and Joe Shelle; 2nd place team, Doyle Baker, John White, Ed Pennington and Jim Powell; 3rd place team, Gary Williams, Johnny Dozier, Chris Emmett and Mary Norman; 4th place team, John Gibson, Mark Gibson, Buck Downs and Ed Tidwell; Longest Drive-Ladies, Karisti Shankle; Longest Drive-Men, Kevin Koestner; and Closest to Pin (4 winners), Jim Powell, Andy Higgins, Sam Duyka and Jim May.

TIAA would like to thank all the sponsors, golfers, and individual contributors who worked together to raise more than $20,000 in a difficult economic environment.

Seminars Available on TIAA Website

Presentations from two recent TIAA seminars held at Plano Centre are now available on the TIAA website. TIAA is providing this service for our members who weren’t able to attend the seminars in person or seminar attendees who might want to review the material to refresh their memories.

TI Health Benefits

Our annual TI Health Benefits Seminar was held on Wednesday, Oct. 20. Over 400 people attended the presentation which was also simulcast over the web.

Kerrin White, TI Health Benefits Analyst, spoke on the 2011 retiree annual enrollment Update.

Dr. Kevin Soden, TI Medical Director, provided a flu update.

Melissa Scarborough, External Affairs Specialist/Provider Liaison, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services for the Region VI Office of External Affairs gave a Medicare update.

Brain Health and Medical Electronics

This seminar, held on Sept. 23, was sponsored jointly by TIAA and the retiree association of UT Dallas. Both UT Dallas and TI provided speakers for the event.

Dr. Denise Park, Director of The Center for Vital Longevity at UT Dallas, a research center focused on understanding and expanding the capacity of the aging mind, spoke on “The Science of Mental Vitality: Can We Slow the Aging Process?”

Dr. Karthik Vasanth, Manager for TI’s Medical and High Reliability Business, gave an update on “Enabling Breakthroughs in Medical Electronics.”

How to Access the Seminar Material

You can view file copies of the presentation materials or watch videos of the seminars by going to www.tialumni.org and clicking on Miss a Seminar?

United Way Campaign Continues

If you have already contributed to the 2nd annual TIAA United Way campaign, many thanks. If you haven’t, there is still time to support this very worthy cause.

No organization does more for kids, families, seniors, you and me than United Way. Throughout the year, United Way identifies the most pressing needs in our community and supports the most effective programs designed to meet those needs. Results of these programs are monitored, measured and documented, so you can be confident you have made the best choice for your philanthropic investment.

Providing an hour of your time each week to non-profit agency can change someone’s life. A gift of just $5-$10, when combined with similar donations from many people can make a noticeable difference in your community.

TIAA has its own website that will allow online donations. To make a pledge, go to www.unitedwaydallas.org/TIAA and click on Pledge Now. If you wish to send a check instead, please make it payable to United Way and send to TIAA/United Way, P.O. Box 740181, Dallas TX 75374.

Our annual TI Retiree Luncheon will take place on Veteran's Day, November 11, at the Mesquite Convention Center. Hope to see you there! Story on Page 1.

Travel

ICE! at Gaylord Texan – Monday, Nov. 29 – Lone Star Christmas at Gaylord Texan in Grapevine will dazzle us with magnificently decorated atriums featuring over 1.5 million holiday lights, electric train displays, a life-size Gingerbread House, and 12,000 sparkling holiday ornaments. We will enjoy the fabulous ice sculptures of ICE!, enjoy casual dining at the Riverwalk Cafe at our own expense on the beautiful patio surrounded by koi-filled waterways. Wear comfortable shoes and warm clothes (although they provide parkas for ICE!) We will depart Texins at 10 a.m. and return about 3 p.m. Cost is $28 for members and $31 for nonmembers.

Oak Ridge Boys Concert – Tuesday, Dec. 14 – Join us and enjoy the Oak Ridge Boys in concert at the Charles W. Eisemann Center, 2351 Performance Drive, Richardson. Their new holiday show – The Boys are Back for Christmas – begins at 8 p.m. These Grammy Award winning artists are known to have one of the most distinctive sounds in the music industry with their four-part harmonies and upbeat songs. This is wholesome holiday entertainment for the entire family. DART light rail runs about one block away (Senior Day Pass is $2) or there is a parking garage adjacent to the center. Tickets are $38 for members and $42 for nonmembers.

Bureau of Engraving & Printing – Tuesday, Jan. 11 – Depart at 9 a.m. from Texins on a TI bus. We will take a 45-minute guided tour of the Fort Worth facility featuring displays and exhibits showing history of U.S. paper currency, the production process and its technology. We'll see a 15-minute film of the production process; walk a quarter-mile elevated walkway tour overlooking the currency production floor; visit the Money Factory gift shop; and see three live demonstration exhibits: a turn-of-the-century spider press, a mutilated currency redemption desk and an engraver's bench showing engravers using traditional tools utilized for more than 125 years to print paper currency. There will be a security check-in. After the tour, we will have lunch at Joe T. Garcia's at our own expense and return to Texins about 3:30 p.m. Cost is $27 for members and $30 for nonmembers.

Tentatively Planned Events – Subject to Change

Museum of Biblical Art, Dallas – Wednesday, Feb. 16.

Winstar Casino, Thackerville – Thursday, March 10.
