Tips for Avoiding Medicare Scams

- Misuse of Medicare dollars is one of the largest scams involving seniors. Common schemes include billing for services never delivered and selling unneeded devices or services to beneficiaries.
- To prevent Medicare scams:
  - Protect your Medicare number as you do your credit card numbers and do not allow anyone else to use it.
  - Be wary of salespeople trying to sell you something they claim will be paid for by Medicare.
  - Review your Medicare statements to be sure you have in fact received the services billed.
  - Report suspicious activities to 1-800-MEDICARE.
  - Contact your local Senior Medicare Patrol program www.smpresource.org

Money Drain Case Study:

Mrs. B is an 87-year-old woman living in her own home. A serious leak develops in her kitchen pipes. She hires a plumber, who runs up the bills, always telling her more work is needed. When she doesn't pay the inflated bills—nearly $20,000—she starts getting threatening phone calls and visits demanding the money. She isolates herself out of fear.

What should Mrs. B do??

- a) Check the plumber's references and report him/her to the Better Business Bureau.
- b) Report the threats to the police.
- c) File a complaint with the Consumer Protection Bureau and Federal Trade Commission.
- d) Call on family and friends for help and support.
- e) All of the above.

Tips for Avoiding Home Repair or Contractor Fraud

- Be an informed consumer. Take the time to call and shop around before making a purchase. Take a friend with you who may offer some perspective to help you make difficult decisions.
- Get the contractors state license information and number
- Carefully read all contracts and purchasing agreements before signing and make certain that all of your requirements have been put in writing.
- Make sure you understand all contract cancellation and refund terms.
- As a general rule governing all of your interactions as a consumer, do not allow yourself to be pressured into making purchases, signing contracts, or committing funds. These decisions are yours and yours alone.

Common Ways to Steal Identity

- “Shoulder surfing”
  - Someone looking over your shoulder as you fill out forms or use your PIN at an ATM or listening to you give your credit card number over the phone.
- “Dumpster diving”
  - Someone going through garbage for copies of your checks and credit card or bank statements or for preapproved credit cards mailings in order to activate the cards.
- Phishing scams
  - Emails that appear to be from a legitimate company or institution (like the IRS), asking you to “update” or “verify” your personal information.

Ways to Protect Your Identity

- Invest in—and use—a paper shredder.
- Monitor your bank and credit card statements.
- Stamp out identity theft with a ID Guard Stamp
- Don't fall for phishing scams.
  - When in doubt, call the institution the email claims to come from or research the potential scam online.
- Beware of telephone scams.
  - Never give out personal information over the phone to someone who initiates the contact with you.
- Be careful with your mail.
  - Do not let incoming mail sit in your mailbox for a long time. When sending out sensitive mail, consider dropping it off at a secure collection box or directly at the post office.

If You Suspect You're a Victim of Identity Theft

- Contact your bank(s) and credit card companies immediately.
- File a report with the police. The police may not be able to do very much themselves, but you may need a police report in order to clear up the problem.
- File with the Federal Trade Commission by using its online complaint form at www.ftc.gov or call the theft hotline at 1-877-ID-Theft.
- Put out a fraud alert to the credit reporting agencies (Experian, Equifax, and Transunion).
