

You're invited to a Texas Instruments and OneExchange retiree health care information session

Three ways to attend

1 In-person

To help you learn more about the new arrangement for individual supplemental health care coverage, Texas Instruments and OneExchange are hosting several in-person informational sessions across the country. These sessions will cover:

- The changes being made to your retiree health care coverage
- How these changes will affect you and your dependents
- What to do next

We encourage you and your spouse or caregiver to attend a session offered in your area. Please follow these steps:

1. Review the list of locations, dates and times of in-person sessions on the back of this page.
2. RSVP for the session you plan to attend by calling 1-800-769-0652 as soon as possible. Seating is limited at each venue.

2 By phone – toll-free anytime calls

If you are unable to attend an in-person session, or if a session is not being held near you, you may call in and listen to an audio recording of the information session at any time. Dial 1-844-684-0761, at your convenience, 24 hours a day. Each call will last approximately 30 minutes and include answers to frequently asked questions and information on resources available. The anytime call will be a “listen-only” session, so be sure to have a pen and paper available to write down any questions you may have during the session. You’ll be able to discuss any questions during your appointment with a OneExchange benefit advisor.

3 Online

If you prefer to view a video of the information provided during the in-person meetings, you may do so 24 hours a day/seven days a week on any Internet-enabled computer or smartphone. On the website, you’ll find a link you can click to launch the video.
